CLUB NOTES by W. H. C. LANE.

GOOD AFTERNOON,

A splendid performance by our Combination lads at Stamford Bridge last Saturday made a strong Chelsea side concede a point and consequently the Pensioners drop from top to third place in the table.

Chelsea included a number of players who have appeared in their League side, in fact, eight of them played against Tottenham in the semi-final of the London Challenge Cup on Monday last and beat the Spurs 4-1. It was not until the last 10 minutes that Chelsea showed their superiority but the Albion lasted out and showed that our play warrants our position in the League.

I make special mention of Alan Grant as he was outstanding as our centre-half in this match, and I know the other lads are only too pleased for me to say "well done, Alan". His display did not overshadow the play of the remainder of the side as they played with a spirit which will win more matches than they will lose. Charles Baker, the Turners Hill lad, was again in goal and his play is improving rapidly with the experience he is gaining in Combination football. This afternoon we receive West Ham's second string and in their side they have a number of youngsters whose aim is, quite naturally, to make First Division football. I have seen some of these in action, and now you have the opportunity of watching young Wragg, Cartwright, Moore, Smillie and Rhodes.

W. H. C. LANE.

PERSONAL NOTE.—Will supporters in the South Stand please be careful with their matches and cigarette ends? We have had several small fires which might have been serious. We are sure our friends will co-operate. A.E.W.
