

NEVADA BASE : PRESS CLIPPINGS

"The brilliant Nevada Base blend arpeggios, synth lines, house beats and live instrumentation with harmony vocals, plus flashes of New Order and The Beloved."

-- Vic Galloway, BBC Radio 1 Scotland.

"Nevada Base send a shiver of hope for Scots music... Scotland desperately needs new blood and Nevada Base have that certain something... Love In My Mind builds with layers of synth noises perking the ear this way and that and the thundering rhythm moves the feet. Epic."

-- Rick Fulton, The Daily Record

"Nevada Base's brand of smooth-voiced, synth-indulgent, dance electro is both distinctive and infectious with percussive off-beats and frantic high-end guitar... Catchy lyrics in set-closer, If I'm Late, show the band at their best, brimming in sing-a-long festival potential. Unbelievably unsigned and ready for the taking this band were the perfect palate preparation for tonight's main serving."

-- Kirstin Lynn, Scottish Television website

"Nevada Base are another band who have been flirting with success for a couple of years. And they're well armed with the kind of music New Order might have made were they just a little less Manchester and a little more Munich. Continental disco beats, jah?"

-- The Scotsman 'Radar' blog